

Nondiscrimination

The public charter school shall promote nondiscrimination and an environment free of harassment based on an individual's race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation¹, national origin, marital status, age or disability, because of the race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, marital status, age or disability of any other persons with whom the individual associates.

A public charter school may not limit student admission based on ethnicity, national origin, race, religion, disability, gender, income level, proficiency in English language or athletic ability, but may limit admission to students within a given age group or grade level.

In keeping with requirements of federal and state law, the public charter school strives to remove any vestige of discrimination in employment, assignment and promotion of personnel; in educational opportunities and services offered students; in student assignment to the school and classes; in student discipline; in location and use of facilities; in educational offerings and materials; and in accommodating the public at public meetings.

The public charter school board encourages staff to improve human relations within the school and to establish channels through which citizens can communicate their concerns to the public charter school administration and the public charter school board.

The public charter school administrator shall appoint and make known the individuals to contact on issues concerning the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VI, Title VII, Title IX and other civil rights or discrimination issues². The public charter school board will adopt and the public charter school will publish grievance procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of student and employee complaints.

Federal civil rights laws prohibit discrimination against an individual because he/she has opposed any discrimination act or practice; or because that person has filed a charge; testified, assisted or participated in an investigation, proceeding or hearing. ADA further prohibits anyone from coercing, intimidating, threatening or interfering with an individual for exercising the rights guaranteed under the Act.

END OF POLICY

² Public charter schools are reminded that the public charter school is required to notify students and employees of the name, office address and telephone number of the employee or employees appointed.
